

Malcolm Goodman MBE

1964 – 1972

Having gained a performing diploma from the Royal College of Music in 1975, Malcolm Goodman pursued a career in the Royal Air Force. He began in the RAF as a musician before becoming the PR and marketing manager for the RAF Music Services. In 1991, he saw active service in the first Gulf War.

He was also a founding charity trustee of the National Association of Youth Orchestras and The Royal Air Force Music Charitable Trust and in 2001 was awarded the MBE for services to music.

He has been an occasional presenter on BBC Radio Lincolnshire and also served a three-year term on the BBC Regional Audience Council.

He has founded two orchestras in Lincolnshire and in 2006 was appointed as music school manager at Uppingham School.
